

Broadcast television stations have a public trust when they use the limited airwaves and for that reason are required to provide equal time to political candidates. If Sinclair Broadcasting forces its stations to show an anti-Kerry screed, you must force them to show "Going Upriver" or step in and stop this abuse now.

Sinclair is demonstrating the danger in allowing concentrated ownership of broadcast media. Relaxing these rules was a betrayal of the public trust. Thank you.